Neighborhood Meeting at Library on Tues. February 4 - 7pm

---

The February meeting of the Neighborhood Association will be held this coming Tuesday, February 4, 2003, at 7:00 p.m. in one of the meeting rooms at the new main library. (As of the date of this notice, library personnel had not assigned the room.) Mel Lyon, the Crime Prevention Specialist with the City Police Department will conduct a refresher course in Crime Watch. Our neighborhood officer, Corporal Bradley, will also attend.

While longer-term neighbors have successfully implemented Crime Watch in the neighborhood, the arrival of many new faces and the changing nature of the surrounding areas (and of crime itself) make this an apt topic. Corporal Bradley, in particular, has indicated a desire to speak with us about new and different problems that have come to his attention. If our neighborhood is to remain safe, we can never be reminded too often of the diligent attention needed and the proper response to suspicious situations that may be all too easy to overlook.

Since the continued success of Crime Watch requires that all of us have the same knowledge and understanding of the issues and that each of us work cooperatively for the benefit of all, please make every effort to attend.
